

The Holy Spirit

Adults and Teens:

Read about the coming of the Holy Spirit in your bible. The account is in the book of Acts, Chapter 2.

The Holy Spirit and Prayer

Pray the Prayer to the Holy Spirit together. Pray it often.

Come, Holy Spirit,
fill the hearts of your faithful,
and kindle in them the fire of your love.

Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created.
And you will renew the face of the earth.

Let us pray.

Lord,
by the light of your Holy Spirit
you have taught the hearts of your faithful.
In the same Spirit
help us to be truly wise and always to rejoice in your consolation.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Be sure to do the “Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit.” If time permits select from among the other “faith learnings” what works best for your family.

For Families with Young Children

A basic understanding of the Trinity is necessary before talking about the Three Persons, including the Holy Spirit.

Make sure your child understands that the Trinity is a mystery. Even very holy people who are very close to God don't understand it because it is something that we can't understand with our limited human minds.

A mystery is something that God wants us to know and believe. Explain that many people have used examples to try to describe what the Trinity is like. Saint Patrick used a shamrock with three separate leaves in one larger leaf. Some other ways to describe the Trinity use candles or an apple.

Use one of these ideas to demonstrate:

1. Place three candles on the table. Light one of the candles. From that candle, light the other two candles. Point out that two were lighted from one light; that there are three separate flames but they are all equal to one another. Then bring the three flames together to form one flame. There are still three flames, but they are mingled together into one flame.

2. Bring out an apple. There is the peel, the fruit we eat and the core. These are three distinct and different parts in one apple. An apple must have all three parts, there's no such thing as an apple without a peel, or without seeds, or without the fruit. In the same way, the Trinity means we must have the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

Your child can begin to understand that the Trinity is a mystery that we can describe but not really understand, and that while each person of the Trinity is a separate individual, they all 'work together' - like the three flames mingle to make one flame.

Postcards

[Families with Young Children]

We know from the bible that Mary, the Mother of God was present in the Upper Room at the time of the coming of the Holy Spirit.

Have your child create a postcard with a picture of Mary on the front of the card. On the reverse side, have them write what Mary might have said when the Holy Spirit as a tongue of fire came upon her.
